RE: CALLOWAY v. RICHTER, et al.
97-CV-617(S)
U.S.D.C., W.D.N.Y.

Dear Mr. Speckin:

This letter is to advise you that on today, Thursday, May 6, 1999, the jury returned a favorable verdict in the above-captioned matter, dismissing the case against my client. This result was due in part to your testimony rendered in this trial on behalf Officer Richter.

Thank you very much for your assistance to my efforts in this case. Should the need ever arise again, I will not hesitate to contact you for future assistance in litigation matters.

Kindly send me your statement for services rendered, so that I can complete my financial obligations to you. Again, it was a pleasure working with you and I look forward to the opportunity for us to collaborate again sometime in the future.

Very truly yours,

JERRY MCGRIER, SR.
Assistant Attorney General
